About

In the context of medicine, weight loss is simply defined as a reduction in total body mass, but for the everyday person, losing weight and getting healthy isn't as easy as working out and eating right, especially when you are being pulled in 10,000 different directions. Learn the ins and outs of how to get you back on track with today's TeamBuy: for $15 you get $30 to spend on vitamins, weight loss enhancements, proteins and more from Popeye's Supplements.

Popeye's Supplements sure knows its stuff and there certainly is a reason they are Canada's largest sports nutrition retailer. They are very friendly and know everything there is to know about supplements and things to just make you all around healthier and live a better life. Not only do they know what products do what but they offer a wide selection in top quality merchandise, guaranteeing the lowest prices in Canada. With over 70 locations coast to coast, they have built up quite a reputation by carrying only products that work, ones where you will see excellent results - guaranteed or your money back!

You might be looking for that product to make you bulk up or just to make you lose weight, but either way Popeye's has got you covered. You can find everything from protein powder to Vitamin B complexes to Omega 3! Drop in to learn about how a meal plan, along with proper supplementation can help you reach your goals for 2011.

Popeye's Supplements will literally make you feel instantly restored and invigorated!

Reviews

"At Popeye's, entering this store is like being thrown into the future, to a land where people no longer eat food -- they take energy supplements and much more. Crate upon crate of oversized tubs hold dozens of different types of protein shakers, smoothers, oozers, and everything you can think of."

Chad

"If you are a fitness nut, then this place has everything. It is the cheapest in the city and what
